Call for Abstracts and Submission Guide

Conference: May 7–8, 2027
Call for Abstracts Opens: November 16, 2026
Submission Deadline: Friday, January 15, 2027

Share Your Knowledge. Inspire Your Colleagues. Strengthen Our Profession.

ANA-Ohio invites nurses, nursing students, educators, researchers, leaders, and healthcare professionals to submit abstracts for podium and poster presentations at the 2027 Annual ANA-Ohio Continuing Education Conference.

Our theme, Uniquely United: Many Voices, One Profession, celebrates the diverse perspectives, experiences, specialties, and contributions that strengthen nursing.

Whether you have completed a project, are implementing an innovative approach, or have expertise in an important nursing issue, we encourage you to share your knowledge with colleagues across Ohio.

Previous presentation experience is not required.

Suggested Topics

We welcome evidence-informed presentations addressing nursing practice, professional development, and emerging healthcare priorities, including:

- Leadership: Developing nurse leaders and strengthening professional influence.
- Advocacy and Policy: Advancing nursing's voice in healthcare decisions.
- Ethics: Addressing ethical challenges, moral distress, and professional responsibilities.
- Innovation and Technology: Exploring AI, technology, and new approaches to nursing practice.
- Specialty Nursing Practice: Sharing clinical expertise and improvements in patient care.
- Professional Identity: Strengthening nursing's professional voice, values, and contributions.
- Workforce and Workplace: Promoting healthy work environments, well-being, and workforce sustainability.
- Education and Professional Development: Advancing learning, competency, and professional growth.

Other topics relevant to nursing and healthcare are welcome.

Presentation Formats

Podium Presentations

Share evidence-informed knowledge, educational content, practice improvements, research, or innovative approaches with conference participants.

Poster Presentations

Showcase research, quality improvement, education, clinical innovations, or other projects through a visual presentation. Posters will be displayed on Friday, May 7, 2027, only.

Applicants may indicate a preference for podium, poster, or either format. Final presentation assignments will be determined by the conference planning committee.
